Celebration on the occasion of Rice Pudding Day

On 28th July 2023, NDRI celebrated a kheer Khane Din in the Nepali calendar, which translates to a day for eating rice pudding.

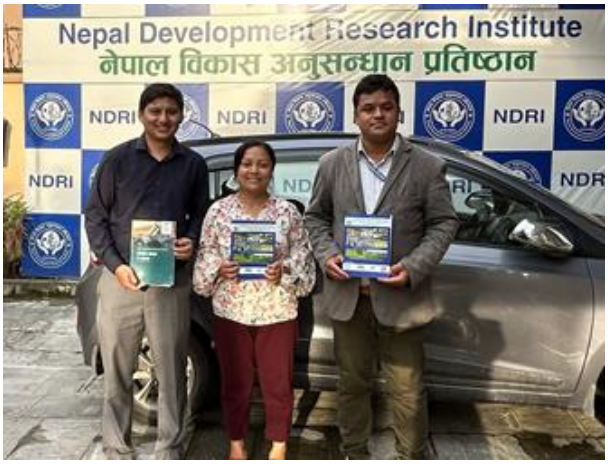

On this day, in almost every Nepali household, a special dish of rice pudding, locally known as khir, is cooked and offered to the deities, and enjoy this sweet delicacy. Khir is considered a holy and pure food that is usually made during religious rituals and festivals.

This Occasion falls exactly one month after Asar 15, another important agricultural festival in Nepal.

Scope for collaboration between CREEW and NDRI

A meeting was conducted between NDRI and Centre of Research for Environment, Energy and Water (CREEW), on 25 July 2023, to exchange information about their respective organizations and to discuss possibilities for collaborating. Dr. Saurav KC, Deputy Executive Director, represented CREEW, whereas NDRI was represented by Dr. Shankar Shrestha, Executive Director, and Ms. Shreya Bajimaya, Senior Research Associate.

The meeting concluded with identification of key areas for potential collaboration for future including WASH, groundwater governance, policy advocacy, water quality, and organizing joint events.
